King George Entertained Nine Crowned Heads and Several Heirs Apparent at Dinner.

ALL MOVE ABOUT FREELY

Nowhere Is Any Word of Apprehension of an Untoward Incident Happening Heard,

London, May 19 .- Nine crowner heads of Europe and several heirs to the thrones sat down in Buckinghan palace tonight at a dinner which King George gave to his eminent guests, assembled in London for the funeral of King Edward tomorrow. After the dinned the members of all the suites were introduced to the king.

It is noteworthy that, though the presence of so many rulers and princes must necessarily throw a great sense of responsibility upon the authorities and the police, all move about freely and no places of any apprehension of untoward Incidents.

London today filled rapidly with per eigners. The whole line of the funeral route, froh early morning until late at night, has been a surging mass of people, viewing the funeral preparations and purchasing seats. The stand business, however, has been greatly overdone, and seats for which $25 and $50 were asked a few days ago are now being hawked at from $5 to $10. The neighborhood of the palaces, the government offices and the great houses today has seen a constant filting of royal carriages, with foreign representatives paying formal visits. Almost all the official visitors went to see Sir Edward Grey at the foreign of-

KAISER GREETS QUEEN MOTHER, Emperor William of Germany, who arrived this morning, was met by King George and later had an affecting meeting with the queen-mother, Alexandra. The emperor then, accompanied by King George, preceded to Westminster hall and paid a tribute to the memory of Edward VII.

peror and king knelt beside the coffin, the thousands who were waiting in line to file past the catafaque were held in check though those within Westminster hall were permitted to remain. Upon arising to their feet the two monarchs clasped hands as they stood with howed heads beside the body of King Edward.

It was a striking scene and greatly moved all those who witnessed it.

Thirty thousand soldiers from Alderchot and other military slations are campine in the parks tonight. The weather is hot and thunderstorms are not improbable. Many thousands of secure points of vantage from which to view the cortege. The lying in state closed at 1 o'clock. It is estimated 400, 1000 persons passed through Westminster hall. King George, with King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, paid a final visit at a late hour.

All London is garbed in mourning four thousand evergreen wreaths, received by the committee of women com all parts of the country, have seen hung along the route, and great masses of flowers are to be seen everychere.

A trial trip was made today by the where.

A trial trip was made today by the royal train, which will carry the body tomorrow from London to Windser. The royal salon has been upholstered in purple and white silk.

A catafalque has been erected in the center and in this train will travel King George and Queen Mary, the queen mother, Alexandra, eight other sovereigns and the near relatives. Special trains will convey the high officials, the foreign representatives and special envoys to Windsor.

WINDSOR IN PURPLE HUE.

The little town of Windsor has assumed a purple hue. From the station at the foot of Castle Hill, where the body of King Edward will arrive, to the sovereign's entrance to the castle, everything, even the churches, is covered with a mourning pall of royal purple. The stands erected in the open piaces have been enshrouded, so that the coffin, with the royal mourners, will pass through an avenue of the most sombre description.

Among the callers at Buckingham Palace today were Col. Roosevelt, the king of Greece, Prince Henry of Prussia and the lord chief justice of England. Col. Roosevelt inscribed his name in the books of King Manuel of Portugal and King Albert of Belgium.

As he was leaving the palace he met the German emperor, who took him to his anartments for an hour's talk. The little town of Windsor has as the German emperor, who took him to his apartments for an hour's talk.

The former president was one of the guests of King George's state diamer. With Henry White, the special delegate from the United States, he will appear in the funeral procession. According to the arrangement of the Duke of Norfolk, the earl marshal, the representatives of the United States will wear evening dress with black vest, black studs and white tie.

Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Whitelaw Reid and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth will have places in St. George's chapel at Windsor, where the funeral services will be conducted and where Edward VII will be temporarily sepulchered among the tombs of his fathers.

in New York today preparing to sall for Europe with her daughter, on Saturday.

"I cannot interest myself in the slightest degree," she sald, "In the subject. It has always seemed to me that women in our country get everything they want without the ballot and why put that obligation upon us—when it is so well taken care of by our men.

"Of course," Mrs. Harrison added, "if it did not come to us I should feel the necessity of voting, because I think that every person who has the franchise should feel it his duty to use it."

Of Europe, Mrs. Harrison said: "One can hardly blame American women for spending so much time there. One can be surrounded with so many refinements and be in such charming environments with so little effort and with so little expense. In fact one can live there at half the cost and with twice the comfort and restfuiness of life in America.

"On the other hand, I am never so much an American as when I am abroad. The thing for Americans to do its to remain Americans under any clime and under any flag that waves."
